To find a list of psych courses offered each semester, search "ASPSY" in the Academic Organization field within the course search.
At least 18 hours of the major coursework must be done at FSU- up to 18 hours of psychology coursework completed at other schools will be accepted to count toward the major.
Please note the following-
- Any course offered from the Dept. of Psychology may count toward electives as long as it is not already satisfying another requirement (i.e. Groups 1-5).
- Only 9 hrs. of DIS and/or internship credits (PSY4911-4915, PSY4920, PSY4944) may count toward Psych electives. Students may use an additional 3 hrs. of Honors Thesis Work towards Psych electives (bringing the total number of research hours allowed toward the major to 12 hrs.)
- Only courses offered through the Psychology Department will count in the major. Courses with a WST prefix will NOT count for psychology credit, even if they are listed under the Psychology course search. In addition, SYP, APK, MHS, EDP, and other courses with the word "psychology" in the title that are offered through other departments will not count as Psychology credit.
- Students may find a list of all Psychology Courses and Descriptions online at http://www.psy.fsu.edu/undergrad.prog/course_descriptions.htm. Course availability varies by semester.
